Terms of Business

1 Estimates and Expenses

The estimate sets out the services we agree to supply. This estimate is an indication of the charges likely to be incurred on the basis of the information and details we know at the date of the estimate. While we make every effort to ensure the accuracy of the estimate, the charges are liable to alteration particularly where third parties change their rates or charges.

We may not know the amount of third party charges in advance of the funeral; however, we will give you a best estimate of such charges in the written estimate. The actual amount of the charges will be detailed and shown in the final account.

2 Payment Arrangements

The disbursements as set out in the estimate are due for payment within 72 hours of the service being carried out. Failure to make this payment, unless previously agreed by ourselves, could result in cancellation or postponement of the funeral.

The outstanding funeral balance is due for payment within 30 days of our account, unless a prior agreement has been made with ourselves.

Failure to settle the account within the term stated above may result in a penalty charge being added to the account.

A rate of 10% of the total amount outstanding may be charged at our discretion upon breach of the above 30 day payment terms, or date thereafter.

We may recover (under Clause 3) the cost of taking legal action to make you pay.

3 Indemnity

You are to indemnify us in full and hold us harmless from all expenses and liabilities we may incur (directly or indirectly including financing costs and including legal costs on a full indemnity basis) following any breach by you of any of your obligations under these Terms.

This means that you are liable to us for losses we incur because you do not comply with these Terms. For example, we may charge you an administration fee where we receive a cheque from you which is subsequently not honoured or if we write to remind you that an account is overdue. If we instruct debt collection agents we may also recover from you the fees we incur. Further details regarding these fees are available on request. We may claim those losses from you at any time and, if we have to take legal action, we will ask the Court to make you pay our legal costs.

4 Data Protection

Words shown in italics are defined in the GDPR Regulations.

We respect the confidential nature of the information given to us and, where you provide us with personal data ("data"), we will ensure that the data will be held securely, in confidence and processed for the purpose of carrying out our services. In order to provide our services we may need to pass such data to third parties and those third parties, who are performing some of the services for you, may contact you directly. Under the Act you have the right to know what data we hold on you and you can, by applying to us in writing and paying a fee, receive copies of that data.

5 Termination

This agreement may be terminated before the services are delivered: (1) by us if you fail to honour your obligations under these Terms and (2) by you communicating to us in writing, terminating your instructions.

If we or you terminate your instructions you may, depending upon the reasons for termination, be asked to pay a reasonable amount based upon the work carried out up to the time your termination is received.

6 Standards of Service

The National Association of Funeral Directors' Code of Practice requires that we provide a high quality service in all aspects. If you have any questions or concerns about the service we provide to you, please raise them in the first instance with our designated senior person. If that does not resolve the problem to your satisfaction you may contact the NAFD Resolve Scheme. This provides a low cost dispute resolution service, as an alternative to legal action. You can contact Resolve at 618 Warwick Road, Solihull, West Midlands B91 1AA. NAFD Resolve provides independent conciliation and arbitration through the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

7 Agreement

Your continuing instructions will amount to your continuing acceptance of these Terms of Business.

Your instructions will not create any right enforceable by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties Act 1999) by any person not identified as our client.

Notification of your right to cancel this Contract under the Cancellation of Contracts made in the Consumer's Home or Place of Work Regulations 2008. Your right to cancel this contract within seven days of receipt of this notice. You have the right to cancel this contract if you so wish. This right can be exercised by sending or taking a cancellation notice to Bournes Funeral Service at any time within the period of 7 days starting from the date of receipt of this notice in writing of your rights to cancel. Notice of cancellation will be deemed as having been served as soon as it is posted or sent to us at the address below or, in the case of electronic mail, from the day it is sent to us. You should understand that, should you choose to cancel the contract having given your authority to commence work, you may be charged for services provided or disbursements incurred.

8 Disclosure of Interests

Bournes Funeral Service Ltd will occasionally make or receive financial donations in respect of charitable gifts, gratuities or contributions to or from organisations, companies and individuals. These financial transactions will be publicly disclosed and detailed on this page as and when such interchange occurs.
